The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-9 and 16-64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Krochta (6,869,628) for reasons of record.

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). This rejection might also be overcome by showing that the reference is disqualified under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) as prior art in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a). See MPEP § 706.02(I)(1) and § 706.02(I)(2).

Applicants' arguments and statements have been considered but do not overcome the rejection because the statement must specify common ownership "at the time of applicants' invention" (emphasis added).

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

The rejection of the claims under 35 USC 102 over McCabe has been withdrawn.

Claims 1-9, 16, 17, 20,, 21, 22, 24-31, 35-37, 39-44, 47-49 and 51-54 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McCabe (6,830,766) for reasons of record.

Applicants' arguments relating to the extent of gloss in the product does not overcome the rejection. The composition of the claims appears to be the same as that shown in McCabe. The composition of McCabe would be expected to have the same gloss as the composition of the claims because the compositions are the same.

Claims 1-9, 16-54 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Best (2005/0118311) for reasons of record.

Applicant argues that Best' statement that his product is glossy is meaningless because chocolate is not glossy. This has been considered but is not persuasive because Best statement that his product is glossy is sufficient to suggest that it is glossy. The fact that applicant my disagree with this assertion is not sufficient to overcome the rejection.

Applicant further provides a declaration in an effort to overcome the rejection of the claims. The declaration has been considered but is not persuasive because the claims are not commensurate in scope with the showing. The declaration is further not persuasive because it is not signed by all of the inventors (see MPEP 715.04).

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
